BRISTOL COMMUNITY COLLEGE TO HOST WORKFORCE TRAINING FUND PROGRAM INFORMATION SESSION ON MAY 2

The Workforce Training Fund Program (WTFP) provides grants to help equip local businesses with financial resources to implement customized training in areas that will further their operational success.

Bristol Community College Center for Workforce and Community Education is hosting a free WTFP Information Session on Tuesday, May 2, from 9-11 a.m., at Sullivan Tire Distribution Center, 151 Charles F Colton Road (Myles Standish Industrial Park), Taunton, MA, 02780.

The info session is co-sponsored by Bristol Community College, the Bristol Workforce Investment Board, the Taunton Area Chamber of Commerce and Industry, and the Taunton Economic Development Corporation and will help employers understand the full array of WTFP grant programs. Please note, the employer must pay into the MA State Unemployment Insurance System.

To RSVP, register through EventBrite at <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/workforce-training-fund-information-session-taunton-registration-33346205398>.

In the past, WTFP grants have helped regional companies train their workers in Lean/Process Improvement & Technical Job Specific Training, Effective Leadership, Customer Service, Business Writing, Workplace English (ESOL), and so much more. BCC works with upper management to develop a customized training program that is tailored to the needs of any business, regardless of size.
