BCC HOLOCAUST CENTER TO HOST FREE CONFERENCE ON THE T4 PROGRAM – NAZI TREATMENT OF THE DISABLED ON FRIDAY, APRIL 20

Please join the BCC Holocaust Center for the Conference on the T4 Program – Nazi Treatment of the Disabled, by Dr. Michael Grodin, Director of Medical Ethics and Human Rights Program at Boston University, on Friday, April 20, 2018, from 8:30 a.m. – 3 p.m., in rooms H209 and H210, in the Jackson Arts Center (H-Building), on the BCC Fall River campus, 777 Elsbree Street. This event is FREE and open to the public.

The T4 Program, also called T4 Euthanasia Program, was a Nazi Germany effort - framed as a euthanasia program - to kill incurably ill, physically or mentally disabled, emotionally distraught, and elderly people.

Michael Alan Grodin, is a Professor of Health Law, Ethics and Human Rights at the Boston University School of Public Health and a Professor in the Center for Health Law, Ethics & Human Rights, where he has received the two highest awards granted the Faculty, the Career Research and Scholarship Award and the Norman A. Scotch Award for Excellence in Teaching.

In addition, Dr. Grodin is Director of the Project on Medicine and the Holocaust at the Elie Wiesel Center for Judaic Studies, core faculty of Judaic Studies and a member of the Division of Religious Studies of the College of Arts and Sciences. He completed his B.S. degree at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, his M.D. degree at the Albert Einstein College of Medicine, his postdoctoral and fellowship training at UCLA and Harvard, and he has been on the faculty of Boston University for the past 34 years.

For more information, please call Dr. Ron Weisberger, Director of the BCC Holocaust Center at 774.357.2444, email ron.weisberger@bristolcc.edu, or visit The BCC Holocaust Center.
