We hope everyone is enjoying the fall semester! In this edition, we spotlight two Bristol students who developed valuable skills by participating in a community-based learning course and an internship.

Check out page 2 to read their stories and for tips on internship success!

This edition also highlights an EEC event, information on voter registration and important election dates.

Looking for a spring semester internship? Check out available internship opportunities on page 4.

To stay up to date on EEC happenings follow us on Instagram, Twitter, or Facebook at @eecbristol.

PRIZE!

Stop by the EEC in K Building Suite 113, we are open 8:30 am to 4:30 pm, to receive a prize and for information on gaining hands-on experience in your field of interest.

Student Spotlights

Community-Based Learning Sayde Clark - Psychology

"Through my project I gained a deeper understanding of community needs. I was also able to explore my strengths as a leader and learned how to use this skill to help others"

Community-Based Learning Course: HON 260: Culminating Honors Project
Community-Based Learning Site: YMCA & Prison Yoga Project

Internship Program Kenneth Matias- Communication

"My tips for success are that you need to be organized, develop a schedule, show passion, connect with coworkers, and ask questions. It is especially important you do all these key things during your time at the internship site to stand out"

Internship Site: WCVB- Channel 5 Boston

Looking for a Spring internship? Check out these upcoming workshop dates in October and November. Preparedness is key when seeking and obtaining an internship.

Within a virtual 1-hour Internship Prep Workshop, students will work with EEC staff to:

- Review policies and procedure of the Internship Program
- Learn what to expect at the internship site
- Begin the process of developing a resume & identifying internship sites of interest

To enroll in the Internship Program, students must attend one workshop the semester prior to beginning their internship.

Community-Based Learning
Networking Event

Faculty
Partners

Tuesday
NOV | 15 | 2022

4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.

RSVP: <https://tinyurl.com/NetEvent22>

Hosted by:
Bristol Community College
Civic Engagement Program

This event is designed to create space for Faculty teaching a Community-Based Learning course and our local Community Partners to come together and build effective partnership opportunities for Bristol students. The event will be structured in a "speed-dating" format so that all faculty are able to interact with all partners and identify mutual goals based on the needs of the organization/community and our student's learning based on the course. This event will take place via Zoom on Tuesday, November 15th from 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.
